Comment:

25X1

a. The report confirms the information reported that about five hundred officers were inducted for a period of training in July 1949. 25X1

b. The figures given in the report are apparently too high and must be viewed with reservation.

c. The inducted officers may be classified as follows:

(1) Reserve officers (including former regular officers) who were inducted for a period of training, presumably in connection with maneuvers of Rumanian Army units.

(2) Former regular officers who were inducted in order to be reenlisted following a period of probation, since the
